

What is Internet Security:

Internet security is a term that describes security for activities and transactions made over the internet. It's a particular component of the larger ideas of cybersecurity and computer security, involving topics including browser security.